MESSAGE TO PARTIES AND OBSERVERS

Informal consultations on the 3rd meeting of the technical dialogue of the first global stocktake under the Paris Agreement

I am pleased to convey the following information on the 3rd meeting of the technical dialogue of the first global stocktake under the Paris Agreement, on behalf of the co-facilitators of the technical dialogue.

The co-facilitators invite Parties and observer States to the Paris Agreement, United Nations organizations, specialized and related organizations, as well as admitted observer organizations and other non-Party stakeholders, to attend the virtual informal consultations on arrangements for the 3rd meeting of the technical dialogue, which will be held in conjunction with SB 58. The consultations are scheduled for Wednesday, 10 May 2023, from 2.30 p.m. to 4 p.m. CEST.

An information note by the co-facilitators outlining the arrangements for the third meeting of the technical dialogue is available at this link.

Technical information on the consultations is included in the annex to this message, and up-to-date information on the process and activities of the first global stocktake can be found at <https://unfccc.int/topics/global-stocktake>.

Yours sincerely,

Cecilia Njenga
Director, Intergovernmental Support and Collective Progress division

Distribution: To Parties and observer States to the Paris Agreement through their national focal points and diplomatic missions accredited to the Federal Republic of Germany, as well as United Nations organizations, admitted observer organizations and other non-Party stakeholders.

Annex

Technical information on the virtual informal consultations on the 3rd meeting of the technical dialogue of the first global stocktake under the Paris Agreement (TD1.3)

Wednesday, 10 May 2023, 2.30 p.m. to 4 p.m. CEST

The consultations will take place on Microsoft Teams. The co-facilitators will give a brief presentation on arrangements for TD1.3, and then open the floor for questions of clarity and discussion. To facilitate an orderly exchange of views, participants are encouraged to use the Teams chat function to ask questions (though they should avoid starting discussions there), and to write the name of their Party or organization in the Teams chat if they wish to speak.

Participants can connect to the virtual informal consultations using one of the following two options:

1. Clicking on the following meeting link and entering the following information:
