MESSAGE FROM THE CO-CHAIRS OF THE AD HOC WORK PROGRAMME ON THE NEW COLLECTIVE QUANTIFIED GOAL ON CLIMATE FINANCE

Tenth technical expert dialogue and the second meeting under the ad hoc work programme on the new collective quantified goal on climate finance

I am pleased to convey to Parties and observer States to the Convention, the Kyoto Protocol and the Paris Agreement, United Nations organizations and related organizations and specialized agencies, intergovernmental and non-governmental organizations admitted as observers a message from the co-chairs of the ad hoc work programme on the new collective quantified goal on climate finance contained in the annex.

Yours sincerely,

Ariesta Ningrum (OIC)

Distribution: To Parties and observer States through their national focal points and diplomatic missions accredited to the Federal Republic of Germany, United Nations and related organizations and specialized agencies, and intergovernmental and non-governmental organizations admitted as observers by the Conference of the Parties.

Annex

Dear colleagues,

As you recall, the Conference of the Parties serving as the meeting of the Parties to the Paris Agreement (CMA) at its third session established the ad hoc work programme on the new collective quantified goal on climate finance (NCQG) for 2022–2024.¹ As the co-chairs of the ad hoc work programme, we have been requested by the CMA to conduct at least three meetings under the ad hoc work programme this year, back-to-back with at least three technical expert dialogues (TEDs), with one dialogue to take place in advance of the sixtieth sessions of the subsidiary bodies (SB 60, June 2024), one in conjunction with those sessions and one well before CMA 6. Two of the dialogues should be organized in separate regions with a view to facilitating inclusive and balanced geographical participation.²

The ninth TED and the first meeting under the ad hoc work programme were held in hybrid format from 23 to 26 April 2024. About 250 participants from around the world met in person in Cartagena, Republic of Colombia and virtually, representing governments, multilateral development banks, non-governmental organizations, academia and the private sector.³

1. Tenth Technical Expert Dialogue and second meeting under the ad hoc work programme

We are pleased to notify Parties and observer States to the United Nations Framework Convention on Climate Change, the Kyoto Protocol and the Paris Agreement, United Nations organizations, and intergovernmental and non-governmental organizations admitted as observers that the tenth TED and the second meeting under the ad hoc work programme will both be held in Bonn, Germany. The tenth TED is scheduled for 3 June 2024, from 3:00 p.m. to 6:00 p.m in room Nairobi 1/2/3. The schedule for the second meeting under the ad hoc work programme can be viewed on the overview schedule of SB 60 at <https://unfccc.int/documents/638226>. Additional information, encompassing the provisional program and logistical details, will be provided in due course on the UNFCCC webpage at <https://unfccc.int/NCQG>.

Registration details

Participants, including those who have participated in previous TEDs, who are interested to attend both events in-person must also be a registered participant of the sixtieth sessions of the Subsidiary Bodies to be held from 3 to 13 June 2024. We kindly ask interested participants to promptly submit the online registration form for on-site participation available at this link, ensuring completion no later than Friday, 26 May 2024. Please be informed that the registration platform mentioned here is separate from the registration process for SB 60. For detailed information on registering for the June session, please visit the registration page at this link: <https://unfccc.int/sb60/ifp#Registration>.

² Decision 8/CMA.5.

³ The programme, presentations and video recordings are available at <https://unfccc.int/event/ninth-technical-expert-dialogue-under-the-ad-hoc-work-programme-on-the-new-collective-quantified> and <https://unfccc.int/event/first-meeting-under-the-ad-hoc-work-programme-on-the-new-collective-quantified-goal-on-climate>.

Recognizing that not all participants may be able to attend the tenth TED in person, arrangements are being made to facilitate active virtual participation. Participants are requested to consider participating virtually and, should they decide to do so, complete the registration form at this link by Tuesday, 30 May 2024. Kindly note also that both events will be broadcasted live via webcast.

Additionally, please be informed that onsite participation in the second meeting under the ad hoc work programme will be guided by the draft rules of procedure of the Conference of the Parties and its subsidiary bodies,⁴ with a view to facilitating it in an open-ended, inclusive and Party-driven manner open to observers.

2. Submissions on the tenth technical expert dialogue and the second meeting under the ad hoc work programme

In addition, as mandated in decision 8/CMA.5, paragraph 14, we invite Parties, constituted bodies under the Convention and the Paris Agreement, the operating entities of the Financial Mechanism, climate finance institutions, observers and other stakeholders, including from the private sector, to submit their views on the tenth TED and second meeting under the ad hoc work programme via the submission portal⁵ by Friday, 17 May 2024. Early submissions would allow for the wide participation of relevant stakeholders, including relevant experts. In these submissions, we encourage Parties and other stakeholders to share ideas on what should be discussed at the tenth TED and the second meeting under the ad hoc work programme, and through what format.

Finally, we would like to emphasize our intention to undertake the ad hoc work programme in an open, inclusive, and transparent manner, ensuring participatory representativeness. As such, we will be available for informal meetings with any Party or regional groups of Parties and relevant stakeholders upon request and can be reached through NCOG@unfccc.int.

Yours sincerely,
